Where the council is relying on GDPR Article 6(1)(c) all Relevant Legislation is listed below.

When we collect your 'special categories of personal data', (such as health, race, ethnicity, sexual orientation) we rely on the following legal bases:

- GDPR Article 9(2) (d) Legitimate activities

Relevant Legislation

These legal bases above are underpinned by acts of legislation that dictate what actions can and should be taken by local authorities, including:

- Public Passenger Vehicles Act 1981 states that:
 - "... a journey made by a vehicle in the course of which one or more passengers are carried at separate fares shall not be treated as made in the course of a business of carrying passengers if –
 - (a) the fare or aggregate of the fares paid in respect of the journey does not exceed the amount of the running costs of the vehicles for the journey; and
 - (b) the arrangements for the payment of fares by the passenger or passengers so carried were made before the journey began "and for the purposes of paragraph above the running costs of a vehicle for a journey shall be taken to include an appropriate amount in respect of depreciation and general wear."

Automated Decision-Making/Profiling

We do not use your information for automated decision-making or profiling purposes.

Data Transfers

Your personal data is transferred to a third country or international organization:

- License Bureau Limited who check Driving Licence clearance with DVLA.

Redaction

We operate a policy where we routinely redact the following details before making forms and documents available online:

- contact details e.g. telephone numbers, email addresses
- signatures
- personal or special category data
- information agreed to be confidential or commercially sensitive

Occasionally it may be considered necessary, justified and lawful to disclose data that appears in the list above. In these circumstances the council will make all reasonable efforts to contact you if this processing is going to have an impact on your rights or privacy.

Data Sharing

We may share your information with the following:

- Zurich Insurance Company
- DVLA

- Volunteer Co-ordinator

While responding to your enquiries or complaints it may be necessary to share your personal data with other parts of the council or other public bodies or organisations. The council will make all reasonable efforts to contact you if this processing is going to have an impact on your rights or privacy.

Data Security and Retention

All of the information you give us will be kept safe and secure whether it is written or on a computer system. We will treat any personal information confidentially and will comply with the Data Protection Act 2018. This means that, if we keep any of your personal data we must:

- tell you what information we need to collect from you
- only use the information for the reason we have agreed with you
- not ask for more information than we need to provide the services
- let you see any information we have collected about you, on request
- keep the information safe, secure and confidential
- personal information will be deleted in accordance with council policy

The information you supply will be kept on a secure council system and can only be accessed by authorised employees within the Transport Services Team.

Cumbria County Council will only store your information for as long as is legally required in accordance with the council's Retention and Disposal Schedule or in situations where there is no legal retention period established best practice will be followed.

To help you understand the Schedule the council has published a Quick User Guide. If you have any questions about the Schedule or the Quick User Guide please contact: recordcentre@cumbria.gov.uk.

Your Rights - Data Subject Access

The General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) provides you with the right to access information the council, as a public authority holds about you. Upon receipt of a valid request the council will:

- provide you with a response within one month;
- let you know if your request is subject to an extension;
- make reasonable efforts to comply with the format of your request;
- inform you if your request is going to be refused or a charge is payable.

You can make a Data Subject Access Request by contacting:

Your Rights - Other

In addition to your right of access the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) also gives you the following rights:

- the right to be informed via the council's Privacy Notice;
- the right to withdraw your consent. If we are relying on your consent to process your data then you can remove this at any point;
- the right of rectification, we must correct inaccurate or incomplete data within one month;
- the right to erasure. You have the right to have your personal data erased and to prevent processing unless we have a legal obligation to process your personal information;
- the right to restrict processing. You have the right to suppress processing. We can retain just enough information about you to ensure that the restriction is respected in future;
- the right to data portability. We can provide you with your personal data in a structured, commonly used, machine readable form when asked;
- the right to object. You can object to your personal data being used for profiling, direct marketing or research purposes;
- you have rights in relation to automated decision making and profiling, to reduce the risk that a potentially damaging decision is taken without human intervention.

Where our processing of your personal data is based on your consent, you have the right to withdraw your consent at any time. If you do decide to withdraw your consent we will stop processing your personal data for that purpose, unless there is another lawful basis we can rely on – in which case, we will let you know. Your withdrawal of your consent won't impact any of our processing up to that point.

Where our processing of your personal data is necessary for our legitimate interests, you can object to this processing at any time. If you do this, we will need to show either a compelling reason why our processing should continue, which overrides your interests, rights and freedoms or that the processing is necessary for us to establish, exercise or defend a legal claim.

Unless otherwise stated above you can exercise any of these rights by contacting:

Email: dataprotection@cumbria.gov.uk

Post: Cumbria County Council, Legal and Democratic Services, 1st Floor,
Cumbria House, 117 Botchergate, Carlisle, Cumbria CA1 1RD
